 of the Council of His Highness the Maharaja, held at Bangalore on the 16th July 1914

7. SUBJECT. - (Clause v of the Schedule).

Question of continuing Mr. S. R. Ramaswami Iyer to act as Assistant of Solar during the absence of Mr. N.
 Narasimhengar on leave.

The appointment of this officer may stand until the question of continuing Mr. N. Narasimhengar's services is settled.

Submitted to His Highness.

The appointment of Mr. G.Srinivasa Iyer, B.A., M.L., First Munsiff, Mysore, as Offg. Assistant Secretary to Government, has created an acting vacancy in the cadre of Munsiffs. The Chief Court propose that either Mr. Rudrappa, Bar-at-Law, Probationary Assistant Commissioner, may be deputed to the Judicial Department for training as Munsiff, or, if he cannot be spared, Mr. Venkatachar, B.A., B.L., Advocate, Bangalore, may be appointed to act as Munsiff.

2. The Civil Service Reorganization Order of January 1913 does not make provision for the training of Probationary Assistant Commissioners as Munsiffs. The proposal to depute Mr. Rudrappa to the Judicial Department does not therefore appear feasible.

3. As regards Mr. Venkatachar, it may be observed that he has not passed all the tests prescribed for the post of a Munsiff and that his nomination by the Chief Court on a former occasion was not accepted by Government. The Chief Court consequently sent up a revised nomination and Mr. B. Raghavachar, B.A., LL.B., who was practising as an Advocate at Mysore was appointed with the sanction of His Highness.

4. The proposals of the Chief Court were discussed informally in the Council meeting of 8th July 1914 and the First Member agreed to consult the Puisne Judges of the Chief Court in the matter of making a revised nomination. The Chief Court, however, are stated to adhere to the nomination of Mr. Venkatachar, which Government felt unable to accept for reasons given in my note of the 4th April 1914.

No. 9 3528-759 M. 23.
- 12. 87 1914

5. The Council are in favour of appointing this vacancy Mr. H.K. Vasrabasavaiya, B.A., B.L., a practising Advocate at Bangalore. He is duly qualified and regarded by the Chief Court as eligible for the post (Letter No. 3803/299 dated 21st March 1914). The First Member adheres to the views recorded by him in his final note, which slightly differ from the opinion of the majority of the Council.

6. In these circumstances, the proposal of the Council may be graciously approved by His Highness. Separate action will be taken in regard to the proposals for transfers and posting of Munsiffs received in this connection from the Chief Court.

7. In paragraph 5 of my submission note dated the 16th May 1914, it was stated that, in regard to the appointment of Mr. Ramaswami Iyer, B.A., B.L., Sheriffdar of the Bangalore District Court, as acting Munsiff of Kolar vice Mr. N. Narasimhiengar granted leave for six months, the recommendations of the Chief Court would be awaited and the claims of all eligible candidates examined before submitting definite proposals for a more permanent arrangement. But the First Member explained that the Chief Court intended that Mr. Ramaswami Iyer, who is duly qualified for the place, should act during the absence on six months' leave of Mr. Narasimhiengar. The Council are now of opinion that the appointment of this officer may stand until the question of continuing Mr. N. Narasimhiengar's services is settled. The final proposals of the Chief Court on this question will be separately invited. The recommendation of the Council in this respect may also be approved.
